The Family Resources, Inc. Domestic Violence Shelter has been an important part of ending violence in our community since 1992. The shelter is open to all women and children fleeing a domestic violence relationship.

Last year:

- The Domestic Violence Program received an average of 11 calls each day on its crisis lines.
- Nearly 1,200 victims of domestic violence sought services through the walk-in program.
- The shelter provided a safe haven for more than 300 women and children fleeing violent relationships.
