The Domestic Violence program receives an average of 19 calls each day on its crisis line. The walk-in program served nearly 9,000 victims of domestic violence last year and the Domestic Violence Shelter provided a safe haven for more than 300 women and children in our community who are driven from their homes by abuse. The Domestic Violence program and shelter are life-saving, critical components for victims who are in urgent need of safety and protection. They are an important part of our community.

Please join us on April 26th. With your help, we can "open doors" to new lives.
